

Application materials - Washington D.C. fly-in trip in November 2024
Teacher/professor/adult recommendation

Applicants for the trip need to provide two references from adults that can speak to their responsibility and commitment. References should not be from their parent/guardian. At least one reference should be from a teacher or professor..

Please return this completed reference to elsie@savetheboundarywaters.org by Sunday September 8 at the latest.

Your name _____ Your email _____
D.C. trip applicant's name _____

How do you know this applicant? _____

Please rank the applicant's (circle the score, 10 is highest)

- Effort in school and other commitments . . . 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
- Independent thinking 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
- Collaboration with others 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
- Responsibility and trustworthiness 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
- Maturity 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
- How much would you trust this person to be on their own in Washington D.C.?
. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10
- How much would you trust this person to meet with high-ranking officials?
. 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Any comments on the above scores?

Written response: Why would you recommend that this applicant travel to Washington D.C. in order to advocate for protecting the Boundary Waters Wilderness? What about this applicant makes you believe they are capable of being an effective advocate? 500 words or less. Feel free to use the back of the sheet or attach an additional page.